

PATIENT IMPROVING AFTER OPERATION

Miss Woodson Undergoes
Skin-Grafting for Serious
Burns.

With twenty square inches of skin removed from other parts of her body and grafted on her left leg, Miss Alice Woodson, the sixteen-year-old girl who was painfully burned while riding a motorcycle with her fiancé on August 20, is today on the road to rapid recovery, say surgeons who performed the grafting operation yesterday.

Miss Woodson was on the operating table for three hours, but rallied soon after the operation, and being physically strong, it is believed she will be able to leave the Casualty Hospital in about one week. Dr. Reeves has charge of the treatment of Miss Woodson.

TAKES BRIGHT'S PLACE.

A. J. Arnold was elected treasurer of Columbia Typographical Union No. 161, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of James E. Bright. He received 25 votes, while his opponent, James R. Armstrong, received 52.

W. P. STACK IS BURIED.

The body of William P. Stack, who was killed by falling down a chute at the Washington Gaslight Company's works, was buried yesterday. Requiem mass was celebrated at St. Paul's Church.

MARSH REPUDIATES PANAMA INTERVIEW

Charge Cables State Department That He Made No
Annexation Threat.

Denying that he made any threat to the effect that the United States would annex Panama if its wishes in regard to the elections were not observed, Charge d'Affaires Richard O. Marsh has cabled to the State Department, asking that an alleged interview with him be publicly repudiated.

Department officials declare that the United States has made no protest against the election of any candidate to the elections were not observed. Charge d'Affaires Richard O. Marsh has cabled to the State Department, asking that an alleged interview with him be publicly repudiated.

ENGINEERS TO AID ILLINOIS WATERWAY

Five engineers to co-operate with the State of Illinois in opening a waterway from the mouth of the Illinois River to Lockport, Ill., have been appointed by the War Department.

The engineers are Gen. W. H. Bixby, chief of engineers; Col. C. McD Townsend, Major Charles Keller, Major James B. Cavanaugh, and John Bogart, the latter a hydraulic engineer of New York.

HOUSECLEANERS WORK ON CAPITOL WALLS

Big Structure on the Hill Undergoing Thorough Overhauling.

Successive layers of paint applied to the walls of the Capitol through nearly one hundred years are being removed by a force of 200 workmen, who are making the most extensive repainting that the building has had in many years. The Virginia sandstone selected by Washington for the structure is once more to be revealed.

In the Senate office building the basement is being fitted up for the accommodation of Congressional officers and committee rooms. In the House office building minor changes are being made, while the Congressional Library is undergoing its usual summer cleaning.

Connections are being made in the group of buildings on Capitol Hill with the new heating and lighting plant in the Southeast Washington.

SHERIFF RETURNING ALLEGED BIGAMIST

Butler Grimsley, the young South Carolinian charged with bigamy, who has been sick in one of the local hospitals, was taken back to Lexington county, S. C., yesterday by Sheriff Miller.

The young man was taken from the side of his young bride several weeks ago and placed in custody on the request of the State authorities.

WOMAN RECOVERING FROM POISON DOSE

Swallowed Antiseptic Tablets In Mistake for Indigestion Remedy.

Mrs. Jane Rider, twenty-two years old, is today at her home, 7 Iowa Circle, recovering from the effects of antiseptic tablets swallowed last night under the impression that they were a remedy for indigestion.

Mrs. Rider, whose husband operates a line of taxicabs in this city, felt badly and was told by one of the other boarders in the house to take some stomach tablets which she had. Mrs. Rider in obtaining the medicine took the wrong bottle.

Dr. McLeod, of Emergency Hospital, was summoned and brought the woman from danger.
